careerverse Jun 2022 - Jul 2022

I created a website where users can see colleges fees, scholarship, admission criteria, college rankings and much more about colleges, so that they can select best college for their further education.

PARTICIPATION

Tech – A - Thon Sep 2022

I attended India's biggest HACK-A-THON (TECH-A-THON) organised by iNueron.ai and techstack at Lovely Professional University where more than 500+ teams participated.

We worked on a problem statement for mobile application, where we planned, design, develop & test, everything in 24 hours,
It was really great experience grinding code for 24 hours with coders all across the India. in a HACK-A-THON
